

Humanities Scholarship 2023–24 Application

Deadline: January 15, 2023

The Lees-McRae Humanities Scholarship is designed to assist incoming main campus students planning to major in English, history, or religious studies at Lees-McRae College. Two students will be selected to receive a $2,000 scholarship that is renewable as long as the student remains enrolled at Lees-McRae College in good academic standing with a minimum of 3.0 GPA and declared Humanities major of English, history, or religious studies. Scholarship is stackable with other Lees-McRae institutional aid.

Criteria:

- Students must apply to the college, be admitted and complete the Humanities Scholarship application by January 15, 2023.

Full Legal Name: _____

Home Address: _____

City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____

Phone (cell): _____ Phone (home): _____

E-mail: _____

FAFSA Completed Date: _____ EFC: _____

Personal Statement:

Applicants must submit a typed 500 word expository essay on the value of a Humanities degree as reflected through the student's personal beliefs, and why they wish to pursue an English, history or religious studies major at Lees-McRae College. Essay should include the student's first and last name and title, and be double spaced in 12 point, acceptable font.

Submit all application materials to:
Karen King, Director of Financial Aid
Lees-McRae College
PO Box 128
Banner Elk, NC 28604